

Notes on Consent for Publication

Data Protection Act 2018

HCACR cannot share your personal details printed in its Annual Report or on the website without your agreement. Please review the notes below and visit the membership management system (Membermojo) to provide your consent.

Only your name will be published in the Association's Annual Report unless you are (or become) a Tower correspondent or an Officer of the Association. You may also be mentioned on or photographed for the Association Facebook page, the Association web page, other social media or in the Ringing World. This will be to publicise Association activities such as striking contests.

Any peals rung for the Association will be published in the Annual Report. Anyone wishing to ring a peal for the Association must agree to this.

If you are a Tower correspondent or have been elected an Officer of the Association, your name, contact number and email address will:

- be published in the Annual Report and on the Association website;
- be published in Association or District newsletters;
- be provided on request to third parties such as the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers, The Ringing World Limited, and other ringers or bellringing associations.

If you change your mind about your consent in the future, please revisit the membership management system or tell your District Secretary.
